

Loudoun Hunger Relief is committed to creating an environment that provides culturally inclusive services that are non-stigmatizing to all clients regardless of race, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity (or expression), religion, national origin, age, or disability, as well as to others from diverse backgrounds.

Loudoun Hunger Relief is committed to providing the best possible services to all clients regardless of race, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity (or expression), religion, national origin, age, disability, as well as to others from diverse backgrounds.

Loudoun Hunger Relief welcomes individuals who are heterosexual, bisexual, gay, lesbian, queer, and/or transgender of differing races, classes, religions, ages, and backgrounds.

We will not accept comments and actions that put down, harass, stereotype, discriminate against or otherwise demean a person because of their racial, cultural, religious background, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity (or expression), religion, national origin, age, or disability.

Clients will be respectful of the other program participants and staff. Any oppressive or abusive language or actions are not acceptable.

Questions about this policy? Ask a staff member.

If a fellow client or any staff member is acting in a harassing, abusive or oppressive way towards me, I know that I can report this behavior to a LHR staff person.
