Wegmans Check Out Hunger Program a Wonderful Help to the Hungry

Wegmans Customers Raise $55,500 for LHR

Leesburg, VA; Loudoun Hunger Relief is excited to announce the receipt of $55,581 from Wegmans' 2018 Check Out Hunger program. Since 2005, Wegmans stores in Dulles and Leesburg have been collecting customer donations for LHR at check out, raising more than $550,000 to feed the people served by LHR.

The Check Out Hunger program was launched by Wegmans in 1993, and has raised $38.8 million in hunger relief funds in the regions served by Wegmans since its inception. Wegmans also donates more than 14.5 million pounds of food in the regions it serves every year. Wegmans is committed to hunger relief in its communities, and makes this effort a corporate priority every year.

LHR Executive Director, Jennifer Montgomery, said "The 2018 Wegmans Check Out Hunger program donation is a huge gift at a crucial time of year. These funds, collected by a caring corporate partner from our amazing community, will provide nourishing food for our neighbors in need. We are truly grateful to Wegmans for its example of corporate citizenship and true community partnership".

Loudoun Hunger Relief served 8,000 of our Loudoun neighbors in 2018. 40% of these are children. 13% are seniors. With the help of partners like Wegmans, we are improving lives and providing hope for the future every day. Our community is so generous, and programs like Check Out Hunger achieve real results.
